Reimbursed Items for Board Members:

Members of the NCUS Board of Directors will be reimbursed for the following items:

1. Any mileage for automobile travel approved by the Board will be reimbursed at the current IRS travel reimbursement rate per mile.
2. Members of the NCUS Board will not be required to pay registration fees to any NCUS meeting that he/she attends while actively serving on the Board.
3. All Past-Presidents’ registration fees will be waived for one meeting, either the Annual Symposium or the Fall Symposium, per calendar year. Application must be submitted to the Central Office.
4. Any additional items shall be brought before the Finance Committee and a decision regarding reimbursement shall be made.
5. The President may request to attend one national meeting per year if the budget allows and the Board approves. If for some reason the President cannot attend any meeting, the privilege falls to the following executive committee member (in the following order: vice-president, secretary, or treasurer). The representative of the NCUS attending the meeting shall be reimbursed for travel, hotel, registration fees, plus $50 per day for meals. The Finance Committee reserves the right to review annually the cost of sending a representative from the NCUS. It is the responsibility of the President (or alternating representative) to approach the Finance Committee before arrangements to attend the meeting are made.
